

SDDCO Brokerage Advisors, LLC Announces New Hire Donald McGuire, Managing Director of Investment Banking

July 10, 2014

The SDDCO Group of CPAs and consultants is proud to announce the hire of Donald M. McGuire as Managing Director of Investment Banking within SDDCO Brokerage Advisors, LLC [Member: FINRA/SIPC].

SDDCO Brokerage Advisors, LLC, a subsidiary of The SDDCO Group (www.sddco.com), welcomes senior executive, Donald "Don" McGuire.

About Don McGuire

Don McGuire has extensive experience in finance, operations management, and business development at major financial services firms and corporations. Past positions include COO and Head of Investment Banking at NewOak Capital; President, CEO, and Chairman of Metastatin Pharmaceuticals Inc.; President and COO at Beenz.com, Inc.; and Managing Director and COO of Corporate Finance-Americas at ING Barings/Furman Selz, where Don was responsible for investment banking operations, including the formulation of business and personnel strategy, primarily in the United States, Mexico, Brazil, and Argentina.

Don's exceptional track record of operations management and business growth in domestic and international markets was built on his ability to quickly grasp complex business environments, drill down to specific solutions, and lead his clients toward success.

After earning his B.A., Political Science from John Carroll University and an M.B.A., Finance from Pace University, Don became FINRA registered in Series 7 General Securities; Series 63 Blue Sky; and Series 79 Investment Banking.

"Don brings a rare combination of intelligence, experience, and humility," said Bryon Lyons, CEO. "With his laser focus on enhancing the essential elements of a client's value proposition, I know our clients will instantly appreciate his counsel."

About the Managing Director Role

In his role as Managing Director of Investment Banking, Don provides advisory and capital raising services to growth and middle market companies across all industries.
